Howard Jones, You Say

It's a cold world, it's a cruel world When you haven't got no one to love And all that poison builds up in your heart Like a cancer killing a dove You gotta stop that life turning upside down You gotta find someone to take care of

I say, you're special No one's ever felt this way Life is so lonely When you won't decide to stay

Here comes the thrill man but don't turn around Like a spoke turning on the wheel And it comes and it goes and nobody knows If it's fake or if it's for real When you find someone with a light in their eyes And your heart you know they will steal

You Say, I'm special No one's ever felt this way Life is so lonely When you won't decide to stay

And when it comes to the end of day And you lie sleeping here next to me I look to you, and softly say Am I dreaming or are you really there?

I can't eat, I can't sleep The face around a fall

You Say, I'm special No one's ever felt this way Life is so lonely When you won't decide to stay

You Say, you're special No one's ever felt this way Life is so lonely When you won't decide to stay
