

Howlin' Wolf, Change My Way

I'm got to change my way of livin', this life I'm livin', a
I'm got to change my way of livin', this life I'm livin', a
I leave home in the morning, don't come back 'til the break of dawn
My baby said that ain't right, I'll admit that is true
My baby said that ain't right, I'll admit that is true
She said daddy, daddy, you got to change the way you do
You know I leave in the mornin', and I don't come back 'til dawn
You know I leaves in the mornin', and I don't come back 'til daw
My baby looked me in the eyes, and said daddy, you got to change your evil way
