Howlin' Wolf, Neighbors

When I had a lots of money I had friends to give a good time I went out with my friends We drunk beer and whiskey all night The next time I take & amp;#039;em out They didn't have a dime to spend I told my neighbors, I ain't gonna spend no money no more I love my neighbors, I can't spend no dime no more I works too hard for my money, to throw my money away My mama keep my money, I ain't gonna spend no money these days I love my neighbors, I love my neighbors But I have no dime to spend Well every Monday morning, my neighbor knockin on my door My neighbor done tell me, I want some ready dough Well I told my neighbor, can't spend no money no more Neighbor he got mad, and walked on away from my door
