

Howling Bells, Across The Avenue

I feel you in a crowded room
I know you followed me across the avenue
And no you can't take, take, take me for a
Ride, ride, ride me home
And I see you, I know you see me too

And it's love
Got me outta my head
Skies turning red
I'm in over my head

I see you in my wildest dreams
I know you see me too
I can hear you breathe

And no you can't break, break, break me even with Words, words words won't end this silence
I know you hear it too

And it's love
Got me outta my head
Skies turning red
I'm in over my head

I feel you in a crowded room
I know you followed me across the avenue
And no you can't take, take, take me for a
Ride, ride, ride me home
And I see you, I know you see me too
