Howling Bells, Setting Sun

Mother will look with me Father will pray for me Religion will wait for me Nobody waits for this long cant you see

Doors will do for me What sinners could never dream Science is in your head Nobody hurts them selves but themselves can't you tell?

Haters will love in time
And lovers will feel their crime
Patience is all you need
That and the courage it takes just to be

One more day is not enough to change the world But we'll rise and fall just like the setting sun One way is not enough to change But we'll rise and fall just like the setting sun

Yes she will lead me there And you won't be anywhere I'll find a quiet path Somewhere alone where the shadows won't laugh

One more day is not enough to change the world But we'll rise and fall just like the setting sun One way is not enough to change But we'll rise and fall just like the setting sun

Mother will look with me
Father will pray for me
Religion will wait for me
Nobody waits for this long can't you see

Yes she will lead me there And you won't be anywhere I'll find a quiet path Somewhere alone where the shadows won't laugh

One more day is not enough to change the world But we'll rise and fall just like the setting sun One way is not enough to change But we'll rise and fall just like the setting sun*3
