

HRVY, Million Ways

Sunday morning i woke up with no one beside me reaching out for you like you were still there gave excuses like no labels I am not ready now I am drowning in a sea of regret how do I do I show you I can make it, make it right instead of making more mistakes

I am not gonna to say goodbye cause I am gonna change your mind let me love you /2x
all day
I've gotta milli, gotta million ways
I am not going to give you up I've got you I swear to god
let me love you /2x
all day
I've gotta milli, gotta million ways
I've gotta milli, gotta million ways

champagne sunset breakfast in bed away from the weekend then do it again when I am out late thinking of ya
I am a call ya to show you I care that no one compares when we get older I wanna be there swim a mountain climb an ocean do it for ya

let me love you /2x
all day
I've gotta milli, gotta million ways
I am not going to give you up
I've got you I swear to god
let me love you /2x
all day
I've gotta milli, gotta million ways
