

Hubert Kah, So Many People

So many people die, I've got a dream they lived under the sun
So many people, so little time to reveal.

So many people die, I've got a dream they lived under the sun
In so many numbers, so little time to reveal what they've done
Kissing the time bomb, private war.

October 26, 1988

In the headlines:

Chad war new offensive

More than 300 people killed

IRA claims police killing.

One in a million, on the road of my life
So many people go to war, so many people set on crimes
That I can't take and I will carry the day.

You know the paper boy running the store at the end of the road
So don't you remember, he got a scene at the end of a rope
Hung like a soldier, brave and tall.

Johannesburg: riot police

Using tears gas and clubs

Clashed tuesday with

University students protesting

Nationwide elections

Wednesday for racially segregated

Municipals councils.

One in a million, on the road of my life
So many people go to war, so many people set on crimes
That I can't take and I will carry the day.

So many people.

One in a million, on the road of my life
So many people go to war, so many people set on crimes
That I can't take and I will carry the day.

So many people go to war, so many people set on crimes
That I can't take and I will carry the day.
