

Huggy Bear, Sizzlemeet

i don't know i just got to go x4 they're coming out of the airwaves a hundred million flavours trajectorized with cheap transistors they are feeling like girls, even the boys teen girl heart magnetizing vapourizing

(i just know)
i don't know i just want to go x4

we were screaming crush the ugly museums the ugly galleries increase our oppression lick my face off raw kids get in, pulled out by parent core in a gravy of envy, they're descending this is the center of the earth off center x4

i don't know i just want to go x3
i don't know i just want to go go!
