

Hugh X. Lewis, Wrong Side Of The World

Last night I went to sleep I thought the world was fine
The day had been a perfect day and you were mine
But somewhere between dusk and dawn the earth tumbled in twirl
And I woke up on the wrong side of the world
The sun has not arrived the moon is still out there
The seas refused to change the tide while you're not here
Cause somewhere between dusk and dawn the earth tumbled in twirl
And I woke up on the wrong side of the world
Cause you were gone my life was changed
Cause you were gone the earth rearranged
Tonight before I go to sleep I'll ask this prayer
Please turn me earth around so when I wake you'll there
Cause somewhere between dusk and dawn the earth tumbled in twirl
And I woke up on the wrong side of the world
Tonight before I go to sleep...
I woke up on the wrong side of the world
