Hughes Turner Project, Fade Away

[Hughes/Turner/Marsh]

I'll be there when the darkness falls Everywhere when the shadows call Hear the wind how it cries your name Don't you worry there's no one to blame

Why, oh why can't I be free Only emptiness inside of me Cuz in my heart I know you'd never stay Tell me how long does it take For love to fade away

I let you slip right through my hands Now I try for a second chance I never wanted to let you go Now there's one thing you should know

Why, oh why can't I be free Only emptiness inside of me Cuz in my heart I know you'd never stay Tell me how long does it take For love to fade away
