

Human Drama, Imitation Of?

How many times can you look me in the eyes
Selling what you are
Remember all the lies?
Do, you baby, yeah?

Words ran wild, deception deep
From what do you run
To lay with me now
Baby, yeah?

Come on, girl, look me in the eye
You say you want to live
Then you say you want to die
Baby, yeah

Daddy's girl says, "I'm a beautiful thing";
How can you not notice?
How can you not want me?
I don't know

'Cause I am love, you cannot disagree
I'm what you need
You can't live without me
'Cause you love me

CHORUS 1
She's an imitation
Of what she longs to be
Standing naked fully clothed
Pretending not to see

Come on, girl, look me in the eye
You say you want to live
Then you say you want to die
Baby, oh

Somewhere lies the guilt of your ways
It'll track you down
You can't disappear, baby
And here it comes

Hey, Juliet there's been a lot of Romeos
They lie still in the closet
As you beckon in the night
Once again, yeah

Little suicide queen, let me introduce the knife
To your trembling hands
It's all so clear

Your an imitation
Of what you longs to be
Standing naked fully clothed
Pretending not to see
