Human Fortress, Forgive & Forget

Maybe time heals my wounds And I'm crying deep to myself This feeling in my broken heart seems to die I've been disappointed

Tell me will I find out The reason I understand But maybe I am a gullible fool Who ignores each warning

I'm still trying to forgive and forget These endless lies can't go on - I'm still Trying to forgive I regret Mistrust will remain - I can't forget these days

Save me, I need support To be strong now, I don't like this game From now on, I know for sure that I am Too weak to recover
