

Human Waste Project, Exit Wounds

in fitful dreams
i screamed your words
remembered him
inside of her
my lover gone-dripped from my lips
like liquid through me
so elusive
i drank from your hand
i drank from your mouth
u poured into me
until i was drowned
i had no breath-was drunk on u i would have given
it all to u

in restless sleep
vision of 2
i screamed your words-with hope i too would become sacred
i too could fly
but my wings are wet
my mouth too dry
to kiss u goodbye (x3)
to kiss u

until i was drowned
i had no breath-was drunk on u
i would have given
it all to u
