

Human Waste Project, Slide

In the dream
i was smaller
i washed my hands clean, clean
i kissed you
and everything was shaking yeah i just could not stop shaking and that made you smile
if i could just wake up and wash myself clean id be all right if i could just take back a few of these things id be just fine
i let it go
i let it slide
i let it go, go this time
i let it go
i let it slide,
i let it go, go this time
Cause in the dream
i woke up next to you and looked at my hands
cause they were so small
i kissed you
yeah i was shaking but i wasnt there at all cause falling out of love is just as divine as falling in my stomach is wrenching my hearts in my throat
im still falling
i let it go
i let it slide
i let it go, go this time
i let it go
i let it slide,
i let it go, go this time
i was buried
deep beneath your skin, skin and all i wanted
was just to kiss you
but you knew i couldnt kiss you
if i could just take back a few of these things id be just fine
i let it go
i let it slide
i let it go
i let it slide,
i let it go
this time...
this time...
Ill be all right x 3
