

Hundred Inch Shadow, i won't fall in love

first i was convinced that you're kind but whenever we go out you're trying to bring me down now i've realised i'm your new toy i don't want to be your new trophy i desire something more all these days i was blind only you were on my mind it's time to move on i don't need you, love is wrong wasted time on useless dates now i can't look at your face and i'm pretty sure i won't fall in love again now i feel the anger inside of me now i don't believe in relations based on chemistry girl with interests is what i need i want to enjoy every minute of our relationship

but i'm pretty sure i will fall in love again
