

Hunter, Branded

Did you ever see this face?
It's full of hate
Like terror flash his eyes
IT'S SCARING ME!

So burning bodies and dancing death
Leave him only a few lasting traces
So sick and broken flash

He was a fighter of another cause
But chosen one of us
Like a prisoner he accepts
CONQUEROR OF THE WORLD...

So burning bodies and dancing death...
And ruthless cause, caused by murder
No ending struggles and war
There is still time, don't go there!
Don't lose the chance
Full of burned flash, caused by murder
And ruthless struggles and war
Don't lose the chance, don't go there!
As long as we have a time...

Through the human dust of the universe
In ashes crawled down
Terror takes him mind and dreams
Controls his dread!

So burning bodies and dancing death...
And ruthless cause, caused by murder
No ending struggles and war
There is still time, don't go there!
Don't lose the chance
Full of burned flash, caused by murder
And ruthless struggles and war
Don't lose the chance, don't go there!
As long as we have a time...
