THINKING OF YOU. (c. Dale Hunter).

1.) I'm thinking of you, baby, in the morning,
I'm thinging of you, baby, at noon.
Thinking about you all the time, your sweet loving fills my mind,
and baby, you keep my heart, in tune.

2.) I love to hold you darling, in the evening.
I love to hear your sweet, sweet voice at noon.
Being with you any time, almost overloads my mind,
and baby, you keep my heart in tune.

3.) Come and love me darling, in the evening,
come and be my sunshine, at noon.
You've got me morning noon and night, 'cause you know how to treat me right
and baby, you keep my heart, in tune.

4.) I'm thinking of you baby, in the morning,
I'm thinking of you darling, at noon.
When I feel your sweet caress, baby you're my happiness,
you really keep my heart, in tune.
