

Huntingtons, Aloha, It's You you're callin' to say hellow now it's been 14 days and i don't know how to deal with you not bein' here it breaks my heart you sound like you're havin' fun and i wish you'd miss me more than you do

i'm sick of talkin' to myself i want you and no one else but you're too far away to hear what i got to say

and i just can't wait

i'm dreamin' about hawaii the surf and the sand, you hangin' with me but you're gone before too long and i feel blue you won't be here to see and changes to hold on to me to hold back my tears

and it's just not fair that i can't be there seems like you don't care, yeah, yeah
