

Huntingtons, Tell Me Goodnight

well i wanna know why you put me outta line (?)
and tell me that everything is cool and roll your eyes

you just don't know how that hurts me so and what can i do to promise you to let me go (?) well was it something that i said or something that i did something that i lost or something that i hid tell me once again was it something that i said it's just not right (ba-chupa, ba-ba-ba-chupa) it's just not right it's just not right (ba-chupa) that you won't tell me goodnight i wanna know why everytime i try to make sense of you you turn your back and don't reply
