

Hurricane #1, Lucky Man

Outside see the main street, people crying
I'm not allowed to walk home after dark mama screams as dad jumps out the window I'm just another wasted soul here in the dark But when i turn the lights on and see my baby dancing
then i'm a lucky man.
I walked down to the corner and some voice from a window says i'm a lucky man
"you're a lucky man, lucky man" Wake up, told you twice, you're no good liar,
you're here again,
and i think it's time for school you shouldn't put fingers in the fire just cos some TV guy says it's cool.
but when i turn the lights on
and see my baby dancing
then i'm a lucky man.
I walked down to the corner
and some voice from a window
says i'm a lucky man
"you're a lucky man, lucky man"
