

Hybrid, Fatal Beating

What's that lying in the leaves so still?
An empty shell of self
I'm all alone and dying
It's just a fatal beating of my heart
Another fatal beating of my heart

When you look into my eyes you see
A shattered me, you see
And if you listen very close, you'll hear
A muffled scream
A dream you never want to visit
It's just a fatal beating of my heart
Another fatal beating of my heart

Oh love, oh love. Why did you go?
Oh love, oh love. Why did you die?
Oh love, oh love. Why did you go?
Oh love, you've beaten me. Oh love

What's that floating in the stream?
It seems a broken dream
It bleeds for promises forgotten
It's just a fatal beating of my heart
Another fatal beating of my heart

What's that lying in the road ahead?
Could it be our love?
I guess you tried to hit the brakes too late
It's dead wight, my fate
You drag beneath your tires
It's just a fatal beating of my heart
Another fatal beating of my heart

Oh love, oh love. Why did you go?
Oh love, oh love. Why did you die?
Oh love, oh love. Why did you go?
Oh love, you've beaten me. Oh love
No chances I'll survive it
It's just a fatal beating of my heart
