

Hypertraxx, The Dark Side

The Dark Side (x10)

Another cold and lonely rainy day comes to an end
I have to clear my mind before I sleep or else I tend
To close my eyes and realize there's nothing there but light
I need shadow I need darkness to help me through the night

The Dark Side (x6)

Another cold and lonely Sunday morning hurts my eyes
Cold water hits my face only get up to see the skies
I raise my head look up and unsurprised the clouds have gone
I'm still in search for darkness so I have to wait till dawn

The Dark Side (x10)
