

Hypo Psycho, Stalker Girl

I've got a story to tell about a girl called Michelle she's seen a picture of me now she's gone mental crazy She wants me all day and night hell I won't put up a fight with chocolate sauce on her chest I'd do her over the desk she says she loves me more than anyone and without me her life just isn't fun

CHORUS:

She's my stalker girl
She twists and wrecks my world
A little crazy but then still kind of nice she's my stalker girl, my stalker girl

Although I've not met her yet, she's come I'm willing to bet She's ready wet and waiting, her all anticipating

And now i'm getting psycho letters, graphic pictures, pumpic through the post and when she asked me out and I said no, I found my cat on roast now I know that...

she's my stalker girl
she twists and wrecks my world two steps behind me is she carrying a knife?! she's my stalker girl, my stalker girl

come on! here we go

She's my stalker girl
she twists and wrecks my world one step behind me is she carrying a knife she's my stalker girl, my stalker girl

She's my stalker girl
she twists and wrecks my world she's right behind me and she's carrying a knife she's my stalker..... GIRL!
