

Hypocrisy, The Arrival Of The Demons (Part 1)

As the full moon rise in the sky, it awakes
Master, bring out the dark forces upon me

I live for dying and to kill
Watcher, open the gates of death

Reach for the silence
Reach for an end

With a knife I release my blood
Not afraid to give away my soul for the older gods
Sign away in blood
Gather for the sacred one
Cut apart the mortal god

Reach for the silence
Reach for an end

We gather around
The circle is complete now
The time is right for the arrival of the demons
