

Hysteriopat, Regrets

Fifty thousand miles away
I still recall the word you said to me

Fifty thousand reasons to stay
But I just wanted you to be free
To be alone in the dark
Without you
To have a hole in my heart
Without

Oh this is how I feel
Oh this is how I feel
this is how I feel
this is how I feel

I don't wanna be apart
No, I don't wanna be apart

Fifty thousand miles away
I still recall the word you said to me

Fifty thousand reasons to stay
But I just wanted you to be free
To be alone in the dark
Without you
To have a hole in my heart
Without

Oh this is how I feel
Oh this is how I feel
this is how I feel
this is how I feel

I don't wanna be apart
No, I don't wanna be apart
