

I am Kloot, Some Better Day

Between the worlds that I don't say, beneath your sacred nights and day,
through the gales of life and laughter,
when you can't you see what you're after,
the evenings in the afternoons are measure with a coffee spoons between the sunshine and the rain I've thought something more to say

Some new life for the neighbors, for the name in all the papers, don't you know?

She will go out for a life,
I have a faded photograph, and one day in sun September though we had and can't remember shoot ya'll got refuse the facts and and science not take off the slut, but you could get your running for all your wants, and all you have

It's a new day for the neighbors,
for the name in all the papers, don't you know?
It's a new day for the neighbors,
and the name in all the papers, don't you know?

Looking for some better day looking for some better ways
through the gales of life and laughter,
when you can't you see what you're after,
will drag me through the kitchen my whole day is on the brink, from here I crystal see the moon, I think of move that so they sink.

It's a new day for the neighbors,
for the name in all the papers, don't you know?
It's a new day for the neighbors,
and the name in all the papers, don't you know?
Don't you know?
