

I Haunt Wizards, Vampire Aids

The tide won't sink us all

It's like a bad dream but no one wakes me or pulls me out

I could watch but I wouldn't laugh as she screams his name

I know it - I know that I know

So let's turn a page and darken bright days

It's not your problem now but I just don't know how I don't

I feel like broken windows can't, they won't stab her in the side

In between her thighs isn't dignified; just like the way that she spoke to me

But it's not the same

She won't sigh this way

I can't taste the floor, this doesn't have a cure

She loses her breath indifferently, I don't

I don't think that I'll bother anymore, it's hopeless

Invisible candles are all I have left now
