

I Was Born Twice, Black Devils

You're feeling weak, so your guard is getting fucked hit deck and tap out, I'll already beat your up This conclave has decide I'm your new deus man, my kingdom is this cage, so you're welcome to my hell my time I've spend on workouts my sweat I've spill so hard my blood I've pumped to muscles to stand victorious, stand my ground I've reach you limits so long ago that I can't imagine how I'm pitty for you and I'm feeling so great,

and I'm feeling so good,
and I feel so stubborn to show you my new moves and I'm taking this shit, and I'm taking it for real,
and even taking your blows, so try a little more here
-on your feet-stand up or die hard or I'll stomp your face right now get down in front of the black devils
my devils

I can drive you into limbo with my shots stronger than Kimbo take you down, ground and pound go back home you little kid yo or I'll crush your pretty face, and you will feel no fuckin grace and I'll stomp your fuckin grave like decepticon bassdrop wave

and I'm taking this shit
and even taking your blows, so try a little more here obey black devils

they said that they'll defeat us in this torment they'll feel how far they are from complete to win to stand after the battle on their feet yes indeed yeah I'm the motherfukin rolemodel to giant ass beat breaking fuckin down, brining to the ground pain tearing apart, tearing apart beating down tap out tap

It no matter than you're bigger, it's no matter how you train, what only matters that I'm determined to bear the bigger pain I let my demons out,
I open seven gates
I can't let you win today, you will fall into the vein pain tearing apart, you lay on the ground obey the devils now
black devils
