

IAMX, You can be happy

You walked into the world,
As a super human boy and girl, oh,
And the blinking of your eyes,
I was born and sold by your manifesto.
It's a cruel world for small things,
With eyes, so curious,
But in between, you can be happy.
You put me in a cage,
With a daily maze of flesh and rage,
And I'll follow any truth,
I won't let you go,
I want every tomorrow.
And now I am afraid,
You will blossom soon and grow and change,
There is so much I can't take,
But I will understand,
I will open my hand.
You can be happy,
You can be happy,
You can be happy,
You can be happy,
There's an open window,
And I can go through,
To the life of others,
There's nothing I can't do.
There's an open window,
And I can go through,
To the life of others,
There's nothing I can't find.
You can be happy,
You can be happy,
You can be happy,
You can be happy!
