

Ian Dury And The Blockheads, You're My Baby

every day I look at you and every day there's something new about you when I look into your eyes there's many things I recognize about you every time I hold your hand i'm learning how to understand about you got more than love enough to spare and i'm not going anywhere without you you're my baby

come excursions or alarms i'll be there to put my arms around you the joy I get to see you smile there'll be gladness all the while around you proudly at your beck and call i'll make sure that love is all around you loving you is purity blankets of security surround you
you're my baby
