

Ian Hunter, Red Letter Day

(Ian Hunter)

Red Letter Day (3) mmmm...

Late at night I drift away somewhere

I'm walking on the moon - talking to you there

I miss you babe, oh I miss you

In my empty room on a crowded avenue

Oh I've been rolling down the river, girl And I bump into you

I miss you babe, oh I miss you

When I come home the love is gonna last forever

'Cause deep in my heart, the loving never went away

When I come home, the love is gonna last forever

It's going to be a Red Letter Day (3) oh-oh

Why oh why oh why can't we see eye to eye

All we do is argue and the years go rolling by

How on earth could it be worth such a sacrifice

All we got's each other and I'm lonely in this life

I miss you girl oh I miss you

When I come home the love is gonna last forever

'Cause deep in my heart, the loving never went away

When I come home, the love is gonna last forever

It's going to be a Red Letter Day (many times)

Leave your light on 'cause I've waited so long
