

Ian Van Dahl, Secret Love (Single Version)

First time I saw you
Got lost in your eyes
Words cannot tell you
What I feel inside

How can I find out
What you try to hide
There must be some way
To reach for your heart

If I could read your mind
And see what you're hiding
There must be something
Deep down inside

How can I find out
What you try to hide
There must be some way
To reach for your heart
