

iann dior, Let You

This time I know, I know, I know
There's no looking back, it's all in the past
I'll let you go, you'll go, you'll go
The love that we had is making me sad
You keep saying
You hate me
I'll let you go, you'll go, you'll go
The love that we had is making me sad
So I'll let you
I'll let you do what you want
And now you're airing me out
This same girl is a gun
But don't tempt me
Cuz I'm taking a chance, put the gun in my hands
Playing Russian roulette until she's empty

No, no
I don't wanna die young,
Don't wanna die young and hopeless
So, so
If I'm gonna die young,
Just, in case I die young, I wrote this:

All these changes
Fuck it!
Don't make my play this
Breake up, make upo
And we do it again

This time i know
I know, i know
There's no looking back
It's all in the past
I will let you go
You'll go
You'll go
The love that we had is making me sad
You keep saying
You hate me
I will let
I will let you go
You'll go
You'll go
The love that we had is making me sad
So i will leyt you

She's the poster that I'm hanging in my mind right
She's so sweet but she caught me on my blind side
You know it's true, I'm fucked up too
But you know, I'm always coming back for you
Cuz every time I see you make me wanna rewind
Love wins so I'm throwing up a peace sign
You know it's true
I'm bad for you
That's just some shit that
I've been going through
