

iann dior, You Don't Even

Ain't been okay since you went away yeah
Now everyday it feels like it's raining
Strangers to lovers
Lovers to strangers
Runnin' round town with an open container

Tryna get gone cause, girl, you're gone
Tryna smoke some of that movin' on
Thought I'd be alright but I was wrong
And you know that

I ain't never been hurt before
Till my world crashed down to the sound of a slamming door
I ain't never felt pain for real
Till the words came out that you don't feel what I feel
I miss you more than a little but it's not the hardest part
It's you don't even have a broken heart
Nah you don't even have a broken heart

Don't understand it
Maybe you're bluffin'
I'm feelin' stranded
You're feelin' nothin'
No kinda problems
No kinda demons
Drunk on a wednesday
Girl you're the reason

Tryna get gone cause, girl, you're gone
Tryna smoke some of that movin' on
Thought I'd be alright but I was wrong
And you know that
I ain't never been hurt before
Till my world crashed down to the sound of a slamming door

I ain't never felt pain for real
Till the words came out that you don't feel what I feel
I miss you more than a little but it's not the hardest part
It's you don't even have a broken heart
Nah you don't even have a broken heart
I miss you more than a little but it's not the hardest part
It's you don't even have a broken heart
Nah you don't even have a broken heart
