

Ice Ages, A Dream As Real As Darkness (Part II)

Look at me my fearful friend
I worthy I seem to you
Well then look closer into my eyes
I am sicker than you think
I mock you while you cry
I am the dark side beneath your head
The spider in your head
I am the rodent in your guts
The knife in yourself that cuts
I stand before you
A mirage of your fear
A dream so real - like darkness
