

Ice Ages, Essential Loss

Unseen is what you are
Though unveil before the juices of scorn
Consume your sad remains
No purpose has promised you salvation
[Refrain]

A big restless struggle evolves
A desperate game
No way to resist
And as I am watching you die
My limbs are tied up
My spirit revolts
[Strophe]

Reckless the gratefulness
Its grinding on every pure decision
Reason obliterate
The towers of further inclinations
[Refrain]

A big restless struggle evolves
A desperate game
No way to resist
And as I am watching you die
My limbs are tied up
My spirit revolts
A big restless struggle evolves
eradicate now
Oh failure so sweet
And as I am watching you die
The universe glows
The essential loss
