

Ice Ages, The Enemy Inside

It's growing inside you
It's taking you beyond your world, abandoned ever since your birth
It's bringing you nightmares, it's calling your last hour; your wish to stop this neverending curse
It's killing all your senses
It seals all doors that lead out away from darkened cold and empty cells
Forsaken and forgotten
Forbidden formless lifeless you're doomed to stay alone within this jail

[Refrain]

This wish to go
This lust to leave
And never to be
And never to believe it
The pain you have
Inside your mind
Will poison your soul
Will carve deep scars within your heart
Your empty days
Eternal sin
Forever disgraced
Forever compromising
Immortal soul
Your endless road
A torment so cruel
You'll never feel alive

[Strophe]

Your peace is so fragile
It's fractured into pieces a universe that crumbles into dust
The enemy within
That daily drains your brain. Your only wish, your curse, your only lust

[Refrain]

This wish to go
This lust to leave
And never to be
And never to believe
Immortal soul
You are the one
Your enemy inside
You'll never feel alive
