

Icon Of Coil, Floorkiller

Someone pretends to hold it back
Even they don't know that they gave their best
When they gave up other believes
When they're on the top even though they got
More then much to give
Bit by snakes
But I won't give it up

Come down
Confront all my visions
Come down...

Still I'm hunting the demons

I used to love to see the reflections of my shadows
Now it seems like a threat
We need less as we swallow each other
Still I'm hunting the demons

Come down
Confront all my visions
Come down...

Can't wait for the signs to stop flashing in my head
Can't wait for the sounds to hold me back
Now it felt through that time
I can't explain
But I hope you try to see
Seduce me
Hold and caress me

Come down
Confront all my visions
Come down...
