

Icon Of Coil, Other Half Of Me

Let me feel the strength you felt
Still hunting in your eyes
Let me taste the life
That you have tasted
Let me feel the power of your supplies
Let me reach my goal
Give me the shimmering in your eyes

I'm here to claim my soul
And the shimmering in your eyes
The other half of me
And all the pieces I left behind

You are my drugs
You are my demons
Am I still alive?
I always knew something was missing
Let me feel the pain that you've felt
I'm still counting the days
Still drifting
Searching for myself
For myself
