

Ida Corr, Lonely Girl

Took a while for the newborn girl to take a deep breath on her first day of her life Couldn't open her eyes needed help to find the place of milky ways Mamma's eyes watching every move that the baby would do when a tear appeared Feeling overwhelmed with pride and a celebration of her creation
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
I don't wanna be left alone
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
'Cause it hurts so bad it hurts so bad
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
No I don't wanna be left alone
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
'Cause it hurts so bad it hurts so bad
Then a couple of years went by not a second wasted in their relation Baby able to sit by the table and pour up the milk and put the butter on her bagle
With a blink of an eye the bags are packed the cap's arrived it just on time
Baby's gotta fly and mamma starts to cry
This is goodbye
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
I don't wanna be left alone
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
'Cause it hurts so bad it hurts so bad
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
No I don't wanna be left alone
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
'Cause it hurts so bad it hurts so bad
I cry...
'Cause it hurts so bad it hurts so bad
I cry...
It hurts so bad it hurts so bad
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
I don't wanna be left alone
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
'Cause it hurts so bad it hurts so bad
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
No I don't wanna be left alone
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
'Cause it hurts so bad it hurts so bad
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
I don't wanna be left alone
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
'Cause it hurts so bad it hurts so bad
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
No I don't wanna be left alone
I don't wanna be a lonely girl
'Cause it hurts so bad it hurts so bad
