

IdleMiND, Acheron

Write me a note
Take me to go
Box this chained up valentine cold

Caught in the moment
Thought you could own it
Still I'm losing sleep over it

Read me the will
Stab for a thrill
Have the togetherness dive down the drain

Sleeping me
Wake up and be Oxymoron you a human being

Useless
Metaphor
Mistaken the poison for the antidote
An idiot?
A memory
I dug you up right before you buried me

The signal is fading
Waving back at me are my shackles
I'll take you to Hades, and back
Before I stop and turn around

Little did I know
Piggy got sold
Harness the thought
When Friend becomes foe

Filter the lies
We're both getting old
Take out my eyes
And I'll still I'll be seeing

Red
All over you
My throat is having trouble with with residue
Trembling
Remember me?
Keep me where you keep your fucking memories

The signal is fading
Waving back at me are my shackles
I'll take you to Hades, and back
Before I stop and turn around

Drown, I'll let you not
Drown, I'll let you not
Drown, I'll let you not
Sail through Acheron
Drown, I'll let you not
