

IdleMiND, Change

I walk in silence
I speak only to myself alone

I break from pressure
To pressure again and again on my own

I pierce the surface
I'm weak, but that's just because I'm alone

I dream of freedom
But that's as close as I will ever get

I close my eyes and breathe again
I try to breathe again
I try but nothing's coming in
And everything is going dim
It's all sinking in
I'm looking back and all I see
All I see in me
Is nothing but insanity
And insecurity
I wish I had another chance
To change everything

I bleed from anger
I cry tears of blood so sad and true
I wish that i can
Still hold you and wash away the pain I knew

I close my eyes and breathe again
I try to breathe again
I try but nothing's coming in
And everything is going dim
It's all sinking in
I'm looking back and all I see
All I see in me
Is nothing but insanity
And insecurity
I wish I had another chance
To change everything

I close my eyes and breathe again
I try to breathe again
I try but nothing's coming in
And everything is going dim
It's all sinking in
I'm looking back and all I see
All I see in me
Is nothing but insanity
And insecurity
I wish I had another chance
To change everything
