

IdleMiND, Obsolete

Down the drain, freedom's a privilege
A privilege for those who can afford it
You feel safe but do you really know
If you'll wake up in one piece tomorrow?

For them we are little piggy-banks
That they break when they need to buy their way up-rank
We are slaves to authority
Devoid of integrity

We are obsolete, pride is an obstacle
A disease that they treat, it's not acceptable

Sell your kids, for a fucking crack hit
A crack hit that makes you sick
You're justified 'cause your mind is blown
While your kids are hungry and without a home

For them we are little piggy-banks
That they break when they need to buy their way up-rank
We are slaves to authority
Devoid of integrity

We are obsolete, pride is an obstacle
A disease that they treat, it's not acceptable

With a gun they make a man turn into a worm
Here today and gone tomorrow
When will we ever learn?

We are obsolete, pride is an obstacle
A disease that they treat, it's not acceptable

A crack hit that makes you sick
