

Iggy Pop, Ordinary Bummer

lovely games of yesterday have left me with my soul today felicity flies out the door when people lose their warmth that's a very ordinary bummer i'll hold out for summer days stand and laugh and run in a quiet movie of mine i saw a girl with eyes like fire i had to look away she was swearing like a sailor and demanding her own way that was when i knew i had to love her i opened up my sad old eyes and let the feelings run with a quiet beauty of mine maybe sometimes we do bad things and then other times we do good and sometimes from something very bad comes something very good in a quiet year of mine
