

Iggy Pop, The Horse Song

i never saw you before
i never sound strained before now i'm at your door
and i hope you're unusual very unusual

and when you nicely ask me in i'm staring at your shoes and i don't wonder why i feel like a horse

we can stray out on the open range missing me every day with its hidden claws spring snow

and when you brush me brush me with your eyes i think you've noticed that i don't want to be a bad guy anymore

but you're unusual
and now i'm at your door
i feel safe and warm

i feel
i feel
i feel
i feel

like a horse

ha ha ha ha
what's this?
