Iggy Pop, Til Wrong Feels Right

I took a punding
from the radio today i heard the radio say some peice of shit
was the sound of today

I took a beating when i saw my tv play it i saw my tv play it over and over and there was no escape the box is hollow

and that riff is fucking dead
but the riff is pounding in my fucking head

they're gonna push it until false is true until day is night
they're gonna push it baby until wrong feels right until wroooong feels riiiiight its a big industry and they can beat my brain with houses cars and shame they are insane

but they can beat my brain god and his captains

they wanna pull a fucking plug
and give the skys
back to the birds and bugs
