

ILLENIUUM, Crashing (ft. Bahari)

Intoxicating your kiss, Intoxicating your lips Nobody does it like this,
I find it hard to resist Feeling out of control, beautifully so
What's coming over me
It's a total eclipse of rationality

I don't usually say this I don't usually play this game I know I am not faded but it kinda feels that way I don't usually say this but I think I should let you know that baby, baby
I don't I don't wanna go

how could I go home when I feel like I belong in your arms
it's like champagne feel it pouring in my veins I got myself too drunk on you to drive so I am crashing here tonight
how could I go home
when you're all I wanna know come on let me see you bed it's too late for this end I got myself too drunk on you to drive

here are you really this good damn are you really this good baby you're just like a drug I'd bottle you up if I could feeling out of control with your chemicals what's coming over me
it's a total eclipse of rationality
