

Imaginature, Imaginature

Get in my head!
Remove dusty shroud.
Open my mind
And read it out loud

Search through my thoughts!
Search through them all.
Untie all the knots
Don't leave it in thrall

To their nature!

Imagine, imagine... Imaginature! x2

Discover deep within your soul,
Ancient writing on a scroll.
Can you write another act?
Where is pen and quill?

To their nature

Accept greatest fears!
Give my whole wit
A long gaze that leers
At my naked grit.

Stubborn in state
Of being a pray,
I mute my irate
And let mind obey

Imagine, imagine... Imaginature! x2
