

Imagine Dragons, Cutthroat

I've been waiting patiently
I built this tower quietly
And when my well of Wellbutrin is Running dry of serotonin
I can say things I don't mean
Or maybe it's the truth in me
I feel it building, bubbling up
My tick tick time is up

I'm so misunderstood
But I live for this , my money is good
And I came to win , so step on up
And I promise you
Only one of us gon' make it out alive and it's not you
Only one of us
Only one of us gon' make it out alive and it's not you
Only one of us
Only one of us gon' make it out alive

I've been making my Gethsemane
And since I was young, my ancestry
Was marching martyrdom across the Radadadadumbbla plains of Utah
I can't lie, I've been played
By powerful people who get their way
But I, in time, will climb my mountain
I, in time, will rise

I'm so misunderstood
But I live for this , my money is good
And I came to win , so step on it
And I promise you
Only one of us gon' make it out alive and it's not you
Only one of us
Only one of us gon' make it out alive and it's not you
Only one of us
Only one of us gon' make it out alive
Try me
Try me
Cutthroat
Only one of us, only one of us, not you
Only one of us, only one of us
Only one of us
Get on the knee, get on the knee
Get on the knee, get on the knee
Get on the knee, get on the knee
Get on the knee, get on the knee
Cutthroat
