Imagine Dragons, Living Musical

It all begins with a look in the eye That goes beyond the body into Feelings you tried to forgot all about A sudden attraction

Between two
With a few
Of the mind that distracts
Of the stars, that it builds
But it flies to the bottom
Baby I'm blessed to be here
The last to be basked in your presence
Ooh

And it's unexplainable, uncontainable
It's hard to be asked to have the confidence enough to move
My lips and speak
My eyes to yours
We connect for a moment
It seems to be a lifetime

I wish I had a lifetime
To capture every moment of you
Every moment of you
Ooh ooh ooh

I wish I had a lifetime To capture every moment of you Every moment of you

Captivating every sense Exhilarating, feelings dance I'm just a fool For pretty girl with confidence Ohh

Who am I to beat the bush? I just want you, skip the mush Baby, be beautiful 'Cause you're a living musical

Oh woah oh oh oh woah oh oh woah oh oh woah Oh woah oh oh oh woah oh oh oh woah oh oh woah oh oh woah

She was coughing on the coolers as she asked for my number I was living in a dream Feelings roll down like thunder

I never met my match Melodic melodies mumble A cocky young thing meets a girl and I stumble

For the first time in my life I don't known where to start With a brush in my hand I don't known when it's art

When I laugh she must smile When I smile she must laugh Is it possible that I'd go for a girl in my path?

And it's unexplainable, uncontainable It's hard to be asked to have the confidence enough to move My lips and speak

My eyes to yours We connect for a moment It seems to be a lifetime

I wish I had a lifetime
To capture every moment of you
Every moment of you
Ooh ooh ooh

I wish I had a lifetime To capture every moment of you Every moment of you

Captivating every sense Exhilarating, feelings dance I'm just a fool For pretty girl with confidence Ohh

Who am I to beat the bush? I just want you, skip the mush Baby, be beautiful 'Cause you're a living musical

Oh woah oh oh woah oh oh woah oh oh woah Yeah Yeah Oh woah oh oh oh woah oh oh woah oh oh woah

Oh be easy on me baby I'm a sensitive mess You're a beautiful girl Nothing else, nothing less

Just tell me what you're felling What I know to be true And I'll give all that I have Baby I'll give it all to you

Captivating every sense Exhilarating, feelings dance I'm just a fool For pretty girl with confidence

Who am I to beat the bush?
I just want you, skip the mush
Baby, be beautiful
'Cause you're a living musical ohh!

Oh woah oh oh woah oh oh woah oh oh woah Yeah Yeah Oh woah oh oh oh woah oh oh woah oh oh woah

Yeah Yeah

Oh woah oh oh woah oh oh woah oh oh woah
